

For two years, a survivor of the Warsaw Ghetto, has lived at Upper East Rehabilitation and Nursing Center. After meeting and getting to know the NYBR Chaplain who has served the Center for nearly a decade, he has reconnected with his Judaism by attending Shabbat services and participating in holiday celebrations.

Dear Friends,

Religious tradition teaches us to open our doors widely to those in need. The NYBR works to fulfill this sacred obligation throughout the year using funds raised during the Annual Passover Campaign.

The NYBR Passover Campaign

- Provides Seder packages bringing Festival food to over 4000 New Yorkers.
· Brings ongoing spiritual support to victims of elder abuse and domestic violence.
· Supports training and education to confront child abuse and human trafficking.
· Enables Chaplains to dispense compassionate care on a daily basis to individuals in nursing homes, assisted living, mental health and developmental facilities as well as correctional institutions.

Whether helping a family when illness strikes, providing care to victims of abuse, responding to disaster or assisting the community in the face of crisis, the NYBR meets the ongoing challenges of aiding those who are most vulnerable among us. We urge you to become our partner in this vital work and know that you will make a difference in the life of another human being.

It is said, "May all who are hungry, come and eat." As we celebrate this sacred season, may we continue to open our doors as widely as possible for all who seek to enter. We hope that you will contribute to this important cause.

Chag Sameach,

- Rabbi Gideon Shloush, President
Rabbi Joseph Potasnik, Executive Vice President
Robert S. Tucker, Chair, Lay Advisory Board
Rabbi Rachel Ain, Co-Chair, Passover Campaign
Barbara Epstein, Co-Chair, Passover Campaign
